November 26 & 27, 2011, First Sunday of Advent

Watch!

"You better watch out; You better not cry. You better not pout; I'm telling you why. Santa Claus is coming to town." Are you WATCHING? Not for Santa Claus, but for the Lord? Today's Gospel warns us to WATCH for Christ's coming.

What are you doing for Advent? It is easy to be so overwhelmed by shopping, writing Christmas cards, and attending holiday parties that Advent is lost. How will you allow God to speak to you despite the busyness? How will you watch?

In order to keep a spiritual focus during Advent, it helps to recall its meaning. The Church says, "Advent has a twofold character: as a season to prepare for Christmas when Christ's first coming among us is remembered" and as a season that "directs the mind and heart to await Christ's Second Coming at the end of time."

We often think only of recalling the birth of Jesus. However, the Scripture readings for the first and second Sundays of Advent speak about the Final Coming of Christ, while the third and fourth Sundays focus our attention on recalling his birth.

St. Cyril of Jerusalem (315-386 A.D.) said, "At the first coming Christ was wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger. At his second coming he will be clothed in light as in a garment. In the first coming he endured the cross, despising the shame; in the second coming he will be in glory, escorted by an army of angels."

When St. Charles Borromeo preached about Advent, he encouraged people to WATCH for Christ's coming in a different way. He said, "This holy season teaches us that Christ's coming was not only for the benefit of his contemporaries; his power has still to be communicated to us all. . . . Christ, who came once in the flesh, is prepared to come again. When we remove all obstacles to his presence he will come, at any hour and moment, to dwell spiritually in our hearts, bringing with him the riches of his grace."

He speaks about the "middle coming" of Christ, the coming here and now. What obstacles are in the way for his coming? Will you take time for confession this Advent? We will celebrate Communal Penance with eight priests at our parish on Monday, December 5th. Please come. Allow the Light of the Lord to scatter the darkness in your heart.

How will you watch this Advent? I urge you to commit at least 10-15 minutes each day for quiet prayer or Bible reading. WATCH and the Lord will come to you.

Peace in Christ, Fr. Steve

History of the Mass Explained

As we prepare for the introduction of the 3rd Roman Missal on November 27th, we also keep in mind that change in the liturgy has frequently occurred throughout the Church's history. A display in the gathering area highlights some of the changes during the centuries. Eight different time periods were selected to be examples of some of the ways the mass has been altered. Included are discussions of the differences in music, languages, prayers, vestments, and extent of participation by the laity. Pictures show the important developments of the time periods as well as significant clergy, theologians, or councils which influenced the mass. Books from the OLBH Library will accompany each station and are ready for checkout. Information on the new Roman Missal will also be available. A handout which summarizes the changes can be taken home for further study. The display will be in place until November 28th.

Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast

The Knights of Columbus will have a Pancake Breakfast and Bake Sale on Dec 4th after the 9 am Mass. Coffee, juice, pancakes, eggs, sausage and apple sauce will be on the menu. A Bake Sale will also be offered after all the Masses on Dec 3 - 4 . All proceeds will go to the K of C Seminarian fund at Our Lady of the Black Hills.

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

Adult Life will be hosting a 5 part series study. The dates are: December 4th, 12th, January 15th, 22nd & 29th. If you've ever wondered why we say what we say and do what we do during the Liturgy, this is the study for you! You will go deep into the Scriptural roots of the Mass, and see the beauty and riches unfold before your eyes like never before. This study is based on the new translation of the Mass. All adults are welcome to join us during Adult Life for the study. If you would like to join, I will be placing a bulk order of materials to save money. PLEASE sign-up in the gathering area by Sunday November 27th.

For the Ride Home

By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down (Isaiah 63:19)
- ❖ Rouse your power, and come to save us. (Psalm 80:3)
- ❖ the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, (1 Corinthians 1:4,5)
- ❖ Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. (Mark 13:33)

Reflection

- ❖ Are you pleading for the Lord to come to save you?
- ❖ Are you ready for the Lord to come and be with you?
- ❖ Are you aware of God's saving grace present in your life?
- ❖ What is needed to bring God's saving presence into your life more fully?

This place is prison, this life is penance, and he wants us to rejoice in the remedy.

The remedy is that our Lord is with us, protecting us and leading us into the fullness of joy; for our Lord intends this to be an endless joy, that he who will be our bliss when we are there is our protector while we are here, our way and our heaven in true love and faithful trust. ...Let us flee to the Lord and we will be comforted. Let us touch him and we shall be made clean. Let us cleave to him and we shall be safe in every kind of peril.¹

Do I live out my responsibility to care for God's creation? Do I see my care for creation as connected to my concern for poor persons, who are most at risk from environmental problems? Do I litter? Live wastefully? Use energy too freely? Are there ways I could reduce consumption in my life? Are there ways I could change my daily practices and those of my family, school, workplace, or community to better conserve the earth's resources for future generations?
